B.Tech Electronics Engineering (VLSI Design and Technology) was started in SCMS School of Engineering and Technology, Karukutty in the academic year 2023-2024. As per the APJ Abdul Kalam Technological university curriculum of 2019 scheme, the provision to provide elective course system starts during the VIth semester, i.e from 2025-2026 for B.Tech Electronics Engineering (VLSI Design and Technology, 2023-2027 batch). Therefore the 2023-2027 batch does not have the provision to undertake elective courses in the year 2023-2024.
