Report on Observance of WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY

09.06.2023

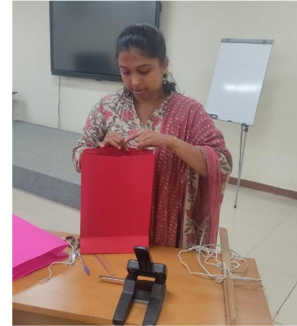

On the 5th of June 2023, SCMS College, in observance of Environment Day, conducted a training session on paper bag making as part of its efforts to promote sustainable practices and reduce plastic waste, Say No TO Plastic Bag and Use Your Own Eco bag. This report provides an overview of the paper bag training session organised by Basic Science and Humanities Department highlighting the objectives and outcomes of the event.

The session was welcomed by Ms. Deva Dileep from 2nd year SCO talking about world environment day and expressing gratitude to all the attendees including students, faculty, staff and the special guest Mrs. Sibhi Hussain who is a resource person and activist in Kudumbasree. Then the session was taken over by our guest and she began by introducing herself and recognizing her significant contributions to environmental awareness and sustainable practices. Her expertise in the field of eco-friendly crafts and her commitment to preserving the environment made her an ideal choice for the training.

Ms. Shibi Hussain, Speaker of the Session

Sibhi Ma'am proceeded to demonstrate the step-by-step process of making paper bags. She showcased her various techniques, including folding, cutting, and pasting, while highlighting the importance of precision and attention to detail. Her expertise and mastery of the craft were evident as she effortlessly guided the participants through each stage. Students were provided with necessary materials.

Glimpses of Paper Bag making session

The session was creative and enjoyed by teachers and students. The feedback of this session was given by Gouri from 2nd year CSE, expressing how useful the session was as plastic bags are harmful for our environment and paper bags are eco-friendly. The vote of thanks was given by Hari from 2nd year CSE, thanking the guest for the session, faculties and participants for being part of it. The session was ended by Reshma Ma'am from Basic Science and Humanities department extended her heartfelt appreciation and gratitude to the guest.
