ALARMING... Survey conducted for implementation of the 723.58-crore Amrita Mission project provides a clear poture of the severity of pollution in canal networks, especially the 11-km Thevara-Perandoor Canal. It shows 632 pipes carying tailet waste have reduced the once flourreduced the once flourshing waterway into a oessool of sevage.

Ecological restoration of the 18-canal network is the only solution to water logging and pollution of water bodies. The survey on TP Canal is the first step towards such a project. — SOUMINI JAW, Koch Occordion Mayo
