Workshop on “Women Entrepreneurs in Plastic Upcycling”

TOPIC: “Women Entrepreneurs in Plastic Upcycling”

DATE- 24th and 25th August 2020

Report:

Plastic pollution is a major environmental problem that requires immediate attention. Recycling and upcycling are two approaches that can help reduce plastic waste. Upcycling is the process of transforming waste materials or useless products into new materials or products of higher value. Women entrepreneurs have taken a lead role in upcycling plastic waste and turning it into valuable products. In this report, we will explore the growing trend of women entrepreneurs in plastic upcycling and the impact they are making on the environment and their communities. By upcycling plastic waste, these entrepreneurs are creating a circular economy, where waste is turned into new products, reducing the need for virgin materials.

The brochure features a large gear graphic in the background. At the top, there are three logos: SCMS Group of Educational Institutions, SCMS School of Technology & Management, and AICTE. The main title is "WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS IN PLASTIC UPCYCLING". Below it, it says "SPONSORED UNDER AICTE Quality Improvement Scheme (AQIS) Online Short Term Training Programme (STTP)".
